

Research study on co-designing therapeutic programming with autistic adults and families of autistic children and youth.

STUDY TITLE

“Nothing About Us, Without Us”: Co-Designing culturally responsive and family-centred approaches with autistic adults and families of autistic Children and youth.

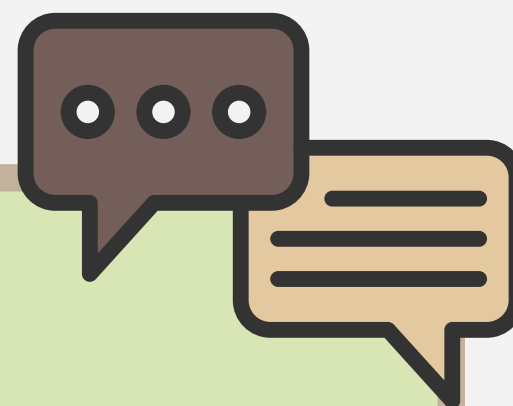

PARTICIPANTS

- Parents and caregivers
- Autistic individuals (aged 18 and older)
- Siblings of autistic youth (aged 18 and older)
- Grandparents
- Practitioners/clinicians
- Currently residing in Quebec or Ontario

WHAT TO DO

- Questionnaire (families only)
- 30-45 minute semi-structured interview or focus group (virtual or in-person)
- Optionally engage in in-depth interviews or workshops.

INVOLVEMENT

- Voluntary
- Confidential
- Option to withdraw anytime
- Support can be arranged for participation
- Compensation will be provided

CONTACT

- Kelly D’Souza (M.Ed. candidate), E-mail: kelly.dsouza@mail.mcgill.ca
- Supervised by Dr. Tara Flanagan, Social Policy, Advocacy, Research, and Community (SPARC) Lab, E-mail: taradawn.flanagan@mcgill.ca

